Profile

I have done freelance work both digital and traditional jobs, including, various client illustrations, storyboards and logos. I have also done some pre-production work at a small cartoon studio in San Francisco. I also (Dec '08- 2009) self published an art compilation book with two other illustrators. I hope to eventually put out my own line of graphic novels. If needed I can also do 3d modelling, logos, brands and storyboards, but I'm mainly a 2d artist (character concepts & comics).
